Well i'm sure most of you have!

But is it all about writing because you're best at it? Nope. Being the best football coach doesn't mean you were the best in your prime. It's all about getting the right information and utilizing it in making money for yourself.

What is ghostwriting?

It is simply the process of writing for others without getting credits for your writing and getting paid for the job done.

I'm not a writer, how do i earn from this?

Well, I'm glad you asked! You don't necessarily need to be a writer to earn from ghostwriting, it's just a plus. The business of ghostwriting is wide and you can simply use AIs like ChatGPT or hire writers and pay them during or after completion of their job. Your mission is to earn and not just to write.
